FINANCIAL SITUATION

Springfield has four commercial banks, five savings banks, and three savings and loan associations. The city was chosen as the logical location for the establishment of the district branch of the Federal Farm Credit System covering New England, New York and New Jersey.

MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY 1295 STATE STREET, SPRINGFIELD

Founded in 1851 in a one-room office in Springfield, the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company has risen to a position of prominence among the world's financial institutions. Ranking among the nation's top 45 business corporations, it has total assets valued at $3.1 million.

Described as "particularly a policyholder's company", the Massachusetts Mutual provides over $11 billion of life insurance protection for more than 700,000 individual insureds and over one million group certificate holders. Its nationwide operations include 119 general agencies, 41 group offices and nine mortgage loan and real estate offices.

The company employs over 2,100 persons, most of whom make their home in the Greater Springfield area. The home office building on State Street was first occupied in 1927. Substantial additions have been made to the building and in 1963, the company began construction of the new East Building. When completed in June, 1965, the addition will provide about 50 per cent more floor space.

Springfield Insurance Company and Monarch Life Insurance Company became affiliated in 1958. These companies, with their affiliates, are now known as Springfield-Monarch Insurance Companies and write all major forms of insurance.

Springfield Insurance Company ("Fire and Marine" was deleted from the corporate name of the company as of December 31, 1960) was incorporated in 1849 and has paid dividends to stockholders continuously since 1867. Monarch Life was founded in 1901 and is one of the nation's leading writers of non-cancellable, guaranteed continuable health and accident insurance with a guaranteed premium rate. The other company in this group is: Springfield Life Insurance Company, Inc., Brattleboro, Vt.

These two insurance organizations (Massachusetts Mutual and Springfield-Monarch) employ over 2,800 persons in the local area.

This digest of the history of Springfield's two largest insurance companies is intended to indicate the scope of one of the city's white collar industries. The city's claim of diversification does not apply alone to diversified manufacturing. We have maintained a healthy balance between diversified manufacturing and diversified service industries of which insurance is a fine example.

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE MEMORIAL FIELD HOUSE, DEDICATED IN FEBRUARY, 1948, TO SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE STUDENTS AND ALUMNI WHO DIED IN WORLD WAR II.

THE CROSSROADS OF NEW ENGLAND

Springfield is the Western Gateway to New England. The city's effective location serves to enhance the area as a transportation, industrial and trade center.

In transportation the greater Springfield Area is bisected by two major highways and serviced by two major commercial airports and three major railroads. Tourists drive on excellent roads to Springfield, to the rest of Massachusetts and to the other New England states. The construction of U. S. Route 91 will eventually place Springfield and the surrounding area along a continuous expressway from Philadelphia to Canada.

For over one hundred years Springfield has been characterized by widespread industrial diversification and outstanding skill among its mechanical trade workers. Of more recent origin has been Springfield's development as a trading center.

The city attracts persons from the greater Springfield Area who seek ample shopping facilities, excellent stores, fine restaurants and hotels. Particularly in recent years the city has grown as a wholesale as well as a retail center. In the greater Springfield Area are also located Agway (formerly the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange), the Hampden County Improvement League and other agencies working for agricultural improvement in the Northeast.

The Springfield Area has an ample share of fine accommodations and each year the city of Springfield becomes headquarters for approximately 50,000 convention delegates. The Joint Civic Agencies of Greater Springfield, Inc. operates a Convention and Visitors Bureau which actively solicits convention business. For over sixty years it has functioned as a counsel and guide to those seeking information and advice about Springfield. Joint Civic Agencies has a research division which makes reliable studies based on full time research on Springfield and the greater Springfield Area.

THE CITY TODAY

Springfield was settled in 1636 as a colonial outpost by a band of men led by the explorer and entrepreneur, William Pynchon. The outpost became a town in 1641 and was incorporated as a city in 1852. The smaller towns of West Springfield, Longmeadow, East Longmeadow, Ludlow, Agawam and the city of Chicopee eventually grew up adjacent to the original settlement.

The city and the rest of the Springfield-Chicopee-Holyoke Metropolitan Area have grown to a population of 478,592, according to the 1960 Federal Census. Excellent turnpike routes make Springfield accessible to Boston (90 miles), New York City (126 miles), and Albany (94 miles).

BUSINESS SECTION — CITY OF SPRINGFIELD

PUBLIC SERVICE INSTITUTIONS

Springfield is fortunate in having public utility organizations which aid in the development of the community. Under the municipality there operates a Springfield Water Works which provides the community with excellent drinking water piped to the city from the eastern foothills of the Berkshires. An excellent reservoir system of great capacity provides a flow adequate to care for the city for many years to come.

Springfield has long been recognized as a community in which the educational facilities are of unusually high standard. The excellent public schools' program leads the pupil through the primary grades and junior high schools into one of four high schools of excellent standing and character. In Classical High School the curriculum is of an essentially academic character and provides for the continuance of education in colleges and universities. In Technical High School courses are offered leading directly to industrial work or to higher engineering colleges. In the High School of Commerce the pupil is prepared thoroughly for a business career, and in the Springfield Trade High School the pupil is well prepared for skills in industrial employment.

SPRINGFIELD TRADE HIGH SCHOOL

THE QUADRANGLE

The Quadrangle, the historical and educational center of Springfield, is located in the heart of the city. Here the latest books, scientific and historical exhibits, paintings and sculpture can be enjoyed by the public. The Museum of Fine Arts, the Museum of Natural History (with the Seymour Planetarium), the George Walter Vincent Smith Museum, the City Library and the Connecticut Valley Historical Museum are all located in the Quadrangle.

The Springfield Area is stimulating culturally for those who follow the arts. There are varied and numerous painting, dancing and writing groups. Springfield has three symphony orchestras (the Springfield Symphony Orchestra, Civic Symphony of Springfield, and the Western Massachusetts Young People's Symphony) and a number of singing groups and choruses. The City Library provides a wide selection of books, pictures, phonograph records as well as many excellent special services for adolescents and children. The city contains three excellent colleges: Springfield College, American International College, and Western New England College. There are also many churches and community civic organizations which serve the needs, beliefs and interests of Springfield citizens.

Springfield has dwelling units for about 58,000 families and has long been known as a community of home lovers. The heterogeneous population lives in a peaceful community. Abundance of water power in the valley has caused the erection of large hydroelectric stations which provide reasonable electrical rates for home owners.

FARM CREDIT BANKS

Since 1917 Springfield has been the northeast headquarters for a cooperative farm credit system which now comprises the Federal Land Bank of Springfield, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Springfield, and the Springfield Bank for Cooperatives. These credit organizations are known as the Farm Credit Banks of Springfield and they serve the six New England States, New York and New Jersey. As of Dec. 31, 1964, their combined assets were nearly $265,150,000 with outstanding loans to northeast farmers and their cooperatives of about $251,628,000.

INDUSTRIAL SITUATION

The most outstanding characteristic in the industrial growth of Springfield and the surrounding area for over 150 years has been widespread industrial diversification. In 1964, 959 manufacturers in the Springfield-Chicopee-Holyoke Metropolitan Area employed 71,572 persons. The metropolitan area's diversification is marked by numerous medium and small manufacturers in varied lines. Fabrication of metal products machinery slightly predominates all other types of production. Many of Springfield's factories manufacture products known the world over and spread the city's fame into many lands. Monsanto Chemical products, Bosch magnetos, Smith & Wesson revolvers, Springfield rifles, Milton Bradley games and toys, Breck hair preparations, Buxton billfolds and Absorbine Junior liniment are typical examples.

The city imports most of its basic raw materials and relies upon its ample supply of skilled labor and its native ingenuity to maintain its industrial position.

Freight rates for the shipment of raw materials and finished products permit local manufacturers to compete with manufacturers in other parts of the country.

Springfield is a growing city. Its rolling hills rising from the Connecticut River provide excellent residential sections for new homes. Residents in the "City of Homes" experience typical New England seasons with charming summers and cold winters.

THE SPRINGFIELD (U. S.) ARMORY is located on a rise commanding the city and the Connecticut River. It was established in 1789 by George Washington, and is the home of the famous Springfield and Garand rifles. Basic mechanical skills developed here by generations of metal workers have made Springfield a center of American craftsmanship. The public may visit the grounds and buildings by arrangement with the Office of Public Information.

THE SMALL ARMS MUSEUM at the Springfield Armory was established in 1871 and is considered one of the finest of its type in the world. It has approximately 5,500 small arms ranging from the earliest inventions in the 14th century up to the modern arms of today.

RETAIL TRADE

Springfield SMSA retail sales for 1964 were $682,080,000 and its retailers served a territory containing approximately 516,900. The two main department stores of Springfield do an annual business in excess of $26,000,000. The large proportion of merchandise carried in Springfield stores is of a quality nature.

WHOLESALE TRADE

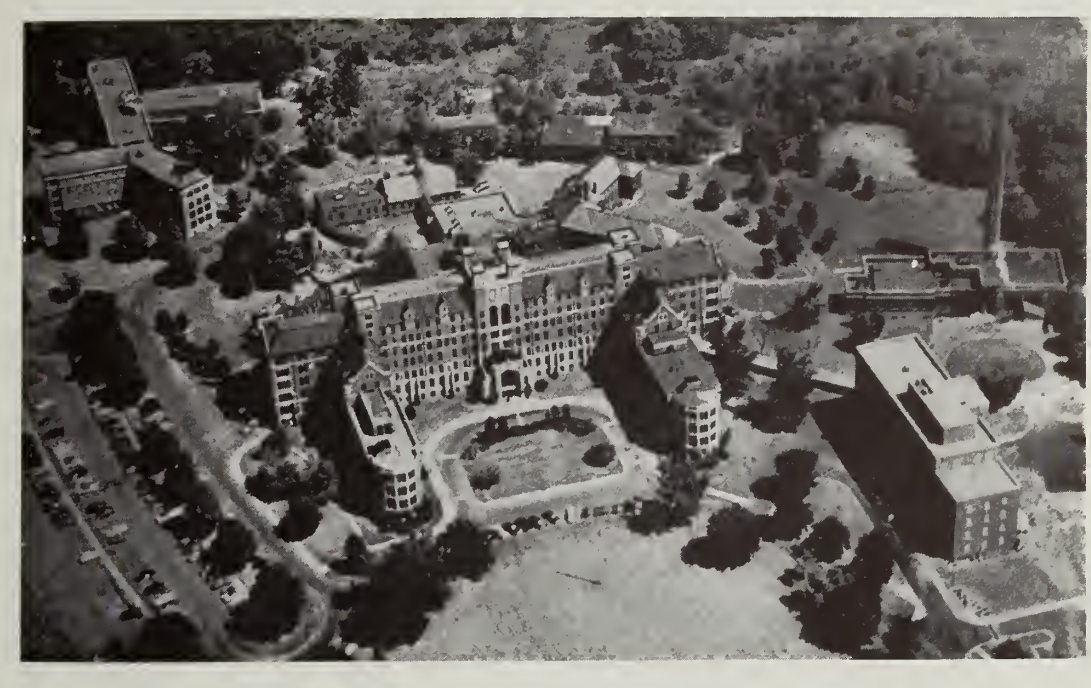
Springfield is served north, east, south, and west by trunk line railroads and it has consequently become a well-known jobbing center. Stocks carried in Springfield cover practically every well-known product manufactured in the United States applicable to the northern climate. Springfield is the distributing center for all of New England for many items.

PLANNING

The City Planning Board's work is of outstanding value in its efforts to project and maintain the future development and growth of Springfield. An extensive Community Renewal Program will be completed in 1965.

HOSPITALS

Hospital facilities are excellent with specialists in every medical field. In early 1965 the total number of hospital beds was 1,704. In the Greater Springfield Area there were 2,000 beds in early 1965. Many of these hospital facilities are modern buildings and all have up-to-date equipment. The Wesson Maternity Hospital was opened in 1953, at a cost of approximately $2,000,000 and the Springfield Municipal Hospital was completed at approximately $9,000,000 in 1954. Springfield also has the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children. A considerable number of new beds and facilities are constantly being added to augment the city's medical resources. Springfield also has outstanding nurse and technical training schools and excellent nursing homes and infirmaries.



The Springfield Hospital and the Wesson Maternity Hospital. Springfield Hospital has 447 available beds. Wesson Maternity now has 128 beds and 172 bassinettes. Other hospitals serving the city are Wesson Memorial Hospital (255 beds), Mercy Hospital (314 beds), Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children (60 beds), and Springfield Municipal Hospital (468 beds with a potential of 500).

SPRINGFIELD MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL

SPRINGFIELD MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL is a modern all-glass front hospital which meets the specifications of the United States Public Health Service. It has 500 beds and is operated by a Board of Trustees made up of two doctors from each of the three local general hospitals, five laymen, and Springfield's Commissioner of Public Health. On the staff are a full time house staff and rotating surgeons and specialists in all medical fields. It has all types of operating rooms and laboratories, a large auditorium, three chapels and many other facilities.

The Springfield Department of Public Health has an outstanding record of achievement. Health and sanitation are vigilantly guarded and in Springfield's school system the children's health is given careful attention.

The Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Springfield is a sixty bed Hospital, and serves the New England States together with Central and Eastern New York State. It is one of seventeen Shriners Hospitals located in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

CHURCHES

OLD FIRST CHURCH ON COURT SQUARE stands on the site of the original meeting house built in 1645. The present chapel, designed after the manner of Christopher Wren, was built by Isaac Damon in 1819.

PARKS

Springfield's average of one acre of public parks for every 78 people is well above the nationally recognized standard of one acre for every 100 people. The city offers more than 2,228 acres of park land for its citizens. The largest unit of the city park system is Forest Park (795 acres), one of the foremost natural parks in the country. The park has an outstanding zoo, with a large collection of animals, including a lioness, lion cubs, a tiger, an Indian leopard, deer, monkeys, and birds. The Nature Museum offers live small animals; fish; various snakes, harmless and poisonous; fossils, Indian lore, etc. The latest addition is the Kiddie Land Zoo (a walk-in type zoo) where children and adults are allowed to pet the baby animals of which some are ducks, fowl, ponies, fallow deer, donkeys, pigs, goats and sheep. This facility has proved to be very popular. Feeding of the animals is allowed except where specified.

Forest Park also offers 26 tennis courts; a stadium; a ball field; an archery range; bowling greens; shuffleboard and horseshoe courts; marble rinks; a swimming-diving pool; a wading pool; ice skating on Barney Pond, Porter Lake; and hockey on an outdoor rink which is provided with lights for night use; boating and fishing on Porter Lake; and fishing in Barney Pond for boys and girls up to age 15 years during annual fishing derby only.

Other parks in the city are Blunt and South Branch Parks and there are smaller recreation areas and parks in the city which contain picnic groves, play equipment and nature trails.

A GREAT CITY DIRECTORY ORGANIZATION SERVING

3,651,320 People in the most densely populated area in America

Annually, with a trained organization within these five states, serving one hundred and forty-one communities, each street and building is thoroughly canvassed for new names, changes and verification of prior information, after which by trained investigators, sections are again recanvassed to keep our name takers keyed up to a high degree of accuracy.

Through the process of sorting, compilation and still greater refining for accuracy, each name is handled twelve times as it becomes a part of the five departments when combined and printed into city directories, renders a service unsurpassed for those who know that without knowledge, activities become wasteful, confused and subject to duplication.

I AM

I sit in the castles of business and at the hearthstones of many homes, mighty in my power to serve.

Through me is the power to make people talk with intelligence concerning their communities.

With extended hand I guide the wearied traveler, and to others shorten the distances between destinations.

In me abides the essence of democracy, as side by side is found all nationalities, rich and poor alike.

With uncanny certainty I unite long-lost friends and make glad the missing heirs.

Through me are protected the law-abiding by tracing the criminal to his hiding place.

Through me, in the friendliest way, new trade channels are opened.

I am the key that unlocks the gate to what your community is, for all who would pass its portals.
